

Bullying Pathfinder

1. www.stopbullying.gov/what-is-bullying
 - a. This website is an anti-bullying website, that encourages people to end bullying.
2. www.library.thinkquest.org/07aug/00117/typesbullying.html
 - a. This website gives a brief synopsis of a few different types of bullying.
3. <http://www.bullyingstatistics.org/content/verbal-bullying.html>
 - a. This website describes verbal bullying.
4. <http://simpleacts.org/bullying-prevention/tag/indirect-bullying/>
 - a. This website has a list of bullying statistics.
5. www.wisegeek.org/what-is-social-bullying.htm
 - a. This website gives a description of alienation in relation to social bullying.
6. <http://www.livescience.com/6032-studies-reveal-kids-bullied-rejected.html>
 - a. This website explains what types of kids get bullied and why they are bullied.
7. www.cyberbullying.us
 - a. This website displays statistics and facts about cyberbullying.
8. www.aclu.org/blog/lgbt-rights/standing-lgbt-students-house-floor
 - a. This article speaks out about LGBT bullying.
9. <http://pbskids.org/itsmylife/friends/bullies/>
 - a. This website also gives a description of what bullying is and where it most commonly occurs.
10. <http://www.heyugly.org/aboutStatistics.php>
 - a. This website gives bully victims empowering ways to rebuild their confidence after being bullied.