

Child Labor

1.

<http://www.worldvision.org/our-impact/child-protection?campaign=11935146&gclid=COXattCa-LkCFY5r7AodXAoAiA> This website gives information about child labor and it also tells people how they can help to end child labor all over the world.

2.

<http://www.unicefusa.org/work/protection/child-trafficking/?gclid=CMz5keSb-LkCFcFj7AodWw8AyA> Unicef works to end child slavery and they also accept donations to contribute to the end of child slavery.

3.

http://america.cry.org/site/lp/sem2013/index\_g.html?gclid=COzTsLyc-LkCFWJp7Aod5xkA0Q America Cry is a non profit organization that offers statistics about child labor all over the world. Also, they accept donations to restore child rights.

4.

<http://www.childlineindia.org.in/child-labour-india.htm> This website addresses the issues and concerns of child labor especially in India. It also talks about the child labor laws in India and how they are not in effect.

5.

http://www.pbs.org/newshour/bb/world/july-dec13/india\_07-31.html This is a news story about the child labor laws in India and it raises the question of “ If there are child labor laws in India, why does child labor still exist?” It gives the story of a little girl who was forced to work.

6.

http://www.continuetolearn.uiowa.edu/laborctr/child\_labor/about/what\_is\_child\_labor.html Continue to learn is a website that explains what child labor is and how it affects children each and everyday.

7.

<http://www.laborrights.org/child-and-forced-labor> Labor Rights gives more information about child labor but it also tells what other countries are doing to help end child labor.

8.

<http://stopchildlabor.org/> Stop child labor is an organization that explains their mission to help end child labor and child trafficking. Also, it gives information about child labor and how dangerous it is.

9.

<http://www.ilsa.net/laws.htm>

This website lists the child labor laws and the wages children receive for doing certain tasks. Furthermore, it lists reasons why children have to work at such young ages.

10.

<http://www.history.com/topics/child-labor>

The website above gives the history of child labor and how children were forced to give up an education to work instead.